

198h	199h	200h	201h
321,556
3350,-
1098,00
	333,40	329,12
			331,21
	120,50(2)
	1785F
	29-18

KNOWLEDGE FROM THE MARGINS, MARGINAL KNOWLEDGE?

SOURCES, SCOPE, AND LEGITIMACY OF CRITICAL ECONOMIC KNOWLEDGE

198h	199h	200h
321,556
3350,-
1098,00
	333,40	329,12
	120,50(2)
	1785F
	29-18

198h	199h	200h	201h	202h	203h	204h	205h
321,556
3350,-
1098,00
	333,40	329,12
	120,50(2)
	1785F
	29-18

198h	199h	200h
321,556
3350,-
1098,00
	333,40	329,12
	120,50(2)
	1785F
	29-18

12&13-06
2025

THURSDAY 12 JUNE 2025

- 10:30
- Welcome of the participants, Coffee
- 10:50
- Opening of the conference
- 11:00
- Scientific introduction by the organisers
- 12:00
- Lunch break (at Sciences Po Grenoble-UGA)
- 13:00
- Keynote lecture by Olessia Kirtchik (EHESS, Paris)
- 14:30
- Coffee break
- 14:45
- Session 1: Margins from above? Beyond the equation of margins with heterodoxy in economics
- Benjamin Riviale (University of Nanterre)
"New Men of Power" in a "European Show"? Trade union and Socialists officials in the congresses for a united Europe (1948-1957)
- Benjamin Castelanelli (University Paris 8)
A relational marginality: the cyclical legitimation/marginalization of the idea of a Tobin tax on financial transactions
- 16:30
- Coffee break
- 16:45
- Session 2: Assessing the marginality of women's economic discourses
- Juliette Blayac (University Lyon 2)
Rethinking Economic Expertise from the Margins: Jack London, Jessica Peixotto, and the Paradox of Thrift
- Veronika Helfert (Central European University Budapest/Vienna)
Production and transfer of economic expertise: The case of labour women and civil servants in Austria and internationally, 1960s–1980s
- Alexandra Ghit, (University of Vienna)
Rural economic know-how: Peasant women, women sociologists and the study of provisioning in interwar Romania
- 20:00
- Diner for the participants

FRIDAY 13 JUNE 2025

- 9:00
- Session 3: The environmental embeddedness of economic practices
- Soline Schweisguth (EHESS-Paris)
Building communist banks in marginal territories: New forms of economic knowledge and legitimacy
- Francesca Dal Degan (University of Pisa)
Value-from-the-margins Economics. Rethinking alternative economies and epistemologies
- Simon Papaud (Sciences Po Paris)
Silvio Gesell's Free economy: a movement in search of legitimacy
- 11:00
- Coffee break
- 11:15
- Session 4: Challenging marginality: postcolonial otherness as a resource for economic knowledge
- Bence Kocsev (Otto von Habsburg Foundation)
Bridging Ideologies: Hungarian Contribution to on Global Economic Thought during the the Cold War
- Gisela Carrasco-Miro (Autonomous University of Barcelona)
How Can We Reclaim Economic Knowledge from the Margins? Towards a Decolonizing Feminist Economics
- Katharina Kreuder-Sonnen (University of Cologne)
'African' management knowledge: Contesting marginality in 1980s Nigeria
- 13:15
- Lunch break (at Sciences Po Grenoble-UGA)
- 14:30
- Conclusions by Emmanuel Mourlon-Druol (European University Institute in Florence) (TBC) and common discussion

